

“Good balance of popular and scholarly material... certainly of high quality.”

— Library Journal

InfoTrac Religion & Philosophy features a custom selection of more than 250 magazines and academic journals — everything from American Atheist Magazine to Zygon — covering religion and the related areas of philosophy, archaeology and anthropology.

Use this database not only to study theological approaches to social issues, but also to learn about the impact that religion has had on culture throughout history, including literature, arts and language.

Coverage — which includes more than 1.1 million articles updated daily — begins as early as 1980 for indexing and 1983 for full text of some periodicals.
